MATTHEWS AND ZIEGLER

Went Twenty Rounds to a Draw Last Night. NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The Green

wood Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, held a boxing show, which began at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and the house was uncomfortably crowded. The star event was a twenty round bout at catchweights between Owen Zeigler, of Phil-weights between Owen Zeigler, of Philadelphia, and Matty Matthews, of this city, both welterweights, with good responds. They fought the twenty rounds hard and fast, each displaying a great deal of science and judgment. From the opening round neither let his opponent have an idle moment, and before five rounds had been gone through each man's face was well marked up.

For afteen rounds Matthews had a slight lead, and although Zeigler did most of the leading Matty's counters on the wind were very effective. Zeigler got home some heavy joits on the local man's face, and swing both hands to the head, stopping Matthews. Matthews, however, always had a lett upper cut or swing rouly when Zeigler per cut or swing rouly when Zeigler. nean, scopping Matthews, Matthews, however, always had a left upper cut or swing ready when Zeigler came within reach, and the latter must have been in grand shape to withstand such hard punishment on the stomach.
Toward the close of the fight Zeigler was the stronger, but once, in the seyeiteenth round, Matthews caught him with a left hook on the jnw which foreed the Philadelphian to his knees.
Zeigler was very strong in the last round, but Sam C. Austin, the referce, could not decide on either man as a winner, and declared the bout a draw.
The decision was a popular one.

Fought to a Decider.

Fought to a Draw.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 2.—"Kid" Goulette, of Rochester, and Marty Me-Cue, of New York, fought a twenty round draw here to-night, before the Rienzi Athletic Club. Goulette broke his left hand by a swing on McCue's elbow, in the third round, but he con-tinued the fight pluckily to the end. Goulette did all of the aggressive work. Both appeared strong at the finings.

ELKES WON EASILY

In His Bace Against the "Flying Dutchman.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The feature of to-night's programme at the in-door meet of the American Cycle Racing association in Madison Square Garden was a fifty mile paced race between was a fifty mile paced race between Harry Elkes, of Glen Falls, N. Y., and Prank Waller, the "Flying Dutchman," of San Francisco, who now claims Boston as his home. Waller received a handicap of two minutes. The prize was a purse of $1,000, $500 to the winner and $400 for the loser. Elkes won easily. Time 1:59:45 2-5.

In a half mile exhibition by "Baby" Gibson, of Cincinnati, and Joe Downey, of Boston, mounted on a tanden, the little fellows covered the half mile in 1:01.

The final heat of the mile professional resulted in a close finish between R. A. Miller, of this city, who had a handicap of thirty yards, and Oscar Hedstrom, of Brooklyn, the only scratch man, who qualified in the trials. They crossed the tape in the order named, only a few inches apart. Time 2:29.

Remarkable Developments.

LONDON, Jan. 2.-Some remarkable facts have developed regarding the suicide of Mrs. Marx-Avaling last suicide of Mrs. Marx-Avaling last March. It appears that she learned that Dr. Avaling, the English Socialist leader, with whom she had lived for a number of sears, had secretly married a soung lady. He admitted that this was true and intimated that he was tired of her. whereupon Mrs. Aveling said the best thing she could do was to commit suicide. Dr. Aveling, it further appears, allowed her to send to a drug store for poison, and went out walking while she drank it. The public prosecutor would have taken action in the matter, but for Mr. Aveling's sudden death on August 4 last.

Mrs. Eleanor Marx-Aveling was the daughter of the late celebrated German socialist leader Kari Marx.

Bringing Them to Time.

HAVANA, Jan. 2 .- Two Spanlards were stopped in the act of taking the picture of the king and the crown from picture of the king and the crown from the throne room of the palace to the Spanish club. They said former Cap-nain General Castellanos gave them to the club. Two Cuban soldiers carrying rilles were stopped by a patrol of the Tenth Linked, States regular infantry on Galiano street last night, and were requested to give up their weapons. They did so, after an argument.

A Cowardly Decision.

PARIS, Jan. 2.-The Intransigeant. edited by Henri Rochefort, a violent opponent Dreyfus revision, is responsibe for the statement that the court of cassation has walved its intention to bring Dreyfus back on the govern-ment's representations of the danger of lynching and riots and of the necessity for a large military force to protect him,

Riots in Hungary.

BUDA PEST, Jan. 2.—Serious strike riots have taken place at Nagy-Komlos, county of Torantol, Hungary, The mob overpowered and disarmed the po-lice who narrowly escaped with their lives. The rioters then attempted to burn the residence of the local magis-trate. Finally the police were rein-forced and the rioters suppressed,

A Combat Imminent.

LIMA, Peru, Via GALVESTON, Texas, Jan. 2.—The latest advices from La Paz, capitol of Bolivia, say that of combat is imminent between the revo-lutionists and the government troops. The La Paz merchants are hastile laying in provisions in view of a possible siege of the capitol.

Gale Sweeping the Irish Coast.

LONDON, Jan. 2.-A fearful gale is sweeping the Irish channel and seas are terrible. The Holyhead harbar is full of shipping, and some of the vessels have dragged their anchors and gone also. There are numerous wrecks along the coast.

A Protest Against Taxation.

LONDON, Jan. 2.-A dispatch from Rome says a mob of 4,000 people has destroyed the internal revenue sentry boxes and stoned the gendarmes around the niscent, Sicily, as a protest against excessive inxation. A number of per-sons were wounded.

ly Distinguished Men of National Reputation Suffering From It. WASHING TON, D. C., Jan. 2,-The grip and the ailments attendant upon it that are now included in its train of ills has prestrated an unusual number of residents of Washington. At all the drug stores, which are the real barom-eters of the state of public health, the reports are the same, that there were never so many prescriptions or so many calls for the remedies which are sup-posed to be specific for diseases of the nucuous system. An observant plar-macist estimates that 10 per cent of the district's population is suffering in one way or another from the now generic grip.

Pingree's Great Day.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 2.—In the ex-ecutive parlors of the state capitol, Chief Justice Grant, of the supreme court, at noon to-day, administered the onth of office to Governor Pingree and the state officers-elect. A large audience witnessed the ceremony. The inaugural reception of Governor Pingree, the new state officers and justices of the supreme court held to-night, at the capitol, was one of the greatest social capitol, was one of the greatest social functions ever given here. Despite counter attractions at the hotels in the shape of senatorial and speakership contests, fully 8,000 people passed through the line of notables who were assisting the governor to receive. Nearly all the members-elect of the legislature were present, but neither of the senatorial candidates put in an appearance.

The senatorial situation remains unchanged to-night, both the Burrows and Pack factions claiming to be confident of victory.
